2. Unless previously cancelled, as hereinafter provided, this bond shall be in effect for the period of said License, ending December 31, 1936. The Surety may, however, at any time terminate its obligation hereunder by giving thirty (30) days written notice to said Principal, the Local Licensing Authorities and the Alcoholic Beverages Control Commission, in which event the liability of the Surety shall, at the expiration of said thirty (30) days, cease and determine, except as to such liability of the Principal for violation of any provision of said Laws or Regulations pursuant thereto, or the performance of the conditions of said License, occurring prior to the expiration of said thirty (30) days.
3. No action to recover hereunder may be brought after the expiration of two (2) years from the termination of this bond.

Signed, sealed and dated this 2nd day of December 1935.

REPORT FOR THE YEAR 1900

Presented to the Board of Directors at the Annual Meeting held on December 12, 1900

The Board of Directors has the honor to acknowledge the valuable assistance rendered by the various departments of the company during the year 1900, and to express its appreciation of the efforts of the management and the employees in the successful operation of the business.

The year 1900 was a year of unusual activity and progress for the company. The various departments have all shown a marked increase in their output, and the company has been able to meet the demands of the market with the greatest efficiency.

The financial statement for the year 1900 shows a net profit of $100,000, which is a record for the company. This result is due to the successful operation of the business and the efficient management of the company's affairs.

The Board of Directors has the honor to recommend the payment of a dividend of $1.00 per share on the common stock of the company, which will be payable on January 1, 1901. This dividend is based on the net profit of the year 1900, and is a reflection of the company's success.

The Board of Directors has the honor to recommend the election of the following officers for the year 1901: President, John D. Rockefeller; Vice-President, John A. Brown; Secretary, John C. Smith; Treasurer, John E. Jones.

The Board of Directors has the honor to recommend the payment of a dividend of $1.00 per share on the common stock of the company, which will be payable on January 1, 1901. This dividend is based on the net profit of the year 1900, and is a reflection of the company's success.

Now, therefore, if said Principal, licensed as aforesaid, shall comply with all the provisions of such laws, including payment of taxes thereunder, and shall pay all fines and penalties assessed against the Principal for violation of any provisions of such Laws, or Regulations pursuant thereto, and shall perform all the conditions of the said License, then this obligation shall be void, otherwise in full force and effect; subject, however, to the following conditions:

1. The aggregate liability of the Surety on account of any and all defaults hereunder shall in no event exceed the penal sum of this bond.

2. Unless previously cancelled, as hereinafter provided, this bond shall be in effect for the period of said License, ending December 31, 1938. The Surety may, however, at any time terminate its obligation hereunder by giving thirty (30) days written notice to said Principal, the Local Licensing Authorities and the Alcoholic Beverages Control Commission, in which event the liability of the Surety shall, at the expiration of said thirty (30) days, cease and determine, except as to such liability of the Principal for violation of any provision of said Laws or Regulations pursuant thereto, or the performance of the conditions of said License, occurring prior to the expiration of said thirty (30) days.

3. No action to recover hereunder may be brought after the expiration of two (2) years from the termination of this bond.

Signed, sealed and dated this 27th day of December 1937.
